

*Being a member of the New Zealand Stamp Dealers' Association (Inc.)
hereinafter called the N.Z.S.D.A. I am required to and have agreed to abide by the following Code of Ethics.*

New Zealand Stamp Dealers' Association (Inc.)

CODE OF ETHICS

1. Members will maintain a high standard of professionalism and business ethics in all their dealings.
2. Members will promote honesty and integrity in their dealings.
3. In dealing with members of the public, any advice given will be to the best of the member's ability.
4. Members will refrain from dealing in stolen philatelic and counterfeit material.
Any Philatelic forgeries offered for sale will be described as such.
Any knowingly stolen material offered to them will be reported to the proper authorities.
5. Members will not misrepresent any item or use misleading advertising.
6. When offering material for sale by auction, postal bid sale or retail price list, members will publish or otherwise make available their terms and conditions of sale.
7. Members will hold secure and intact any material sent to them, or left with them, for offer or opinion and will return such material to its owner on request.
8. Members will advertise for sale only those items that are available from them at the time the advertisement is placed or make it quite clear that the goods advertised are subject to delivery.
9. Members will not act in any way so as to bring discredit to the N.Z.S.D.A. or philately in general.
10. Members will make a full refund, within a reasonable period of time following the transaction, on any item sold by that member where the description was either inaccurate or misleading.
11. Members will support and abide by the rules of the N.Z.S.D.A.
12. In the event of any dispute to which a member is a party the member agrees to abide by any ruling in connection with such dispute as set down by the Executive Committee of the N.Z.S.D.A.
